Course Description
This course is Part 2 of the study of the Greek language of the New Testament, including the vocabularies and the general principles of its grammar and syntax.

Course Objectives

Knowing
1. To become aware of the basic principles of language use (e.g. traditional grammar vs. modern linguistics)
2. To acquire a basic knowledge and understanding of how we got the New Testament and how it came to be written in Greek
3. To learn the basic morphology, syntax, and vocabulary of the Greek language of the New Testament
4. To know the basics of translating the New Testament Greek into contemporary English

Being
1. To appreciate the value of knowing and being able to use Greek in the study of the New Testament and especially in ministry
2. To find pleasure in working with Greek in biblical studies
3. To develop increased appreciation for the Greek of the New Testament as a guide for life and confidence in interpreting it

Doing
1. To use one’s knowledge of Greek as an effective tool for studying the New Testament and for ministering the word of God
2. To be able to read the Greek New Testament with the aid of a lexicon, recognizing all major syntax and vocabulary.

Required Texts
Note: Other material will be distributed as handouts in class or posted on the class blog. Course Requirements

Class Participation (5%)
1. Learning is a collaborative effort. Do not hesitate to ask questions at any time during and outside the class time.
2. Learning language is like learning mathematics—it is cumulative knowledge acquisition and requires a lot of practice.
3. Class attendance is a necessity in learning language, unless you have the necessary skill and discipline to do it on your own. You will do well if you always come to class on time. You do not want to be trailing behind a lesson or an assignment.
4. You will not be marked for class participation, but you will get the full 5% if you have a complete class attendance.

Weekly Quizzes (25%)
1. There will be one in-class quiz every Monday (except during long test days) at the start of class time on lessons and material learned previously (e.g. alphabet, endings, vocabulary, grammar terms, etc.).
2. There will also be take-home quizzes for you to do at your convenient time outside of class time (see the Daily Activities handout). Take-home quizzes are due every Monday.

Long Tests (30%—15% each)
1. There will be 2 long tests (see Course Schedule), and each is an hour and a half long.

Homework Exercises (10%)
1. There will be homework exercises (see Daily Activities schedule) to hand in at the start of each class time. Homework exercises are given to help you increase your final grade. Failure to complete them will reduce your final grade or can even cause failure of the course.
2. Late submission will result in a loss of up to 5 marks off your final grade. Homework exercises are meant to help you master the lessons and prepare you for the quizzes and long tests. Therefore, make sure to complete and submit them dutifully.
3. Homework exercises that are more than a week late will not be accepted.
4. Please do not check the answer key for these homework exercises. It will be corrected for you.
5. For the other exercises in the Fundamentals of New Testament Workbook that are not assigned, complete as much as you can (the more the better), and check your answers with the answer key provided. This is vital to your progress.
Final Examination (30%)
1. There will be a final examination, which will be 3 hours long.

Course Grading
1. Class participation: 5%
2. Weekly Quizzes: 25%
3. Long Tests: 30% (15% each)
4. Homework Exercises: 10%
5. Final Examination: 30%
Total: 100%

Statement on Academic Honesty

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence that may take any number of forms, including plagiarism, the submission of work that is not one’s own or for which previous credit has been obtained, and/or unauthorized collaboration with other students. Academic dishonesty can result in severe consequences (e.g. failure of the assignment, failure of the course, a notation on one’s academic transcript, and/or suspension or expulsion from the College).

Students are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty. Please refer to the Divinity College Statement on Academic Honesty ~ http://www.mcmasterdivinity.ca/programs/rules-regulations

Gender Inclusive Language

McMaster Divinity College uses inclusive language for human beings in worship services, student written materials, and all of its publications. In reference to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected. The NRSV and TNIV are examples of the use of inclusive language for human beings. It is expected that inclusive language will be used in chapel services and all MDC assignments.
